WELCOME

(By Joseph Cimino)

As president of the class of nineteen hundred forty-seven, I have the privilege of welcoming you to our class night program.

With these exercises we are closing one of the happiest and most interesting chapters of our lives. This is one of our last opportunities to meet as a class and to recall those happy moments once more before we part to go our various ways. It is a privilege and a pleasure for us to be here. We hope that you too will enjoy these memories as we, the class of '47, present our class night program.

CLASS HISTORY

(By Joyce Dineen)

Into my album entitled "The Best Years of My Life", I recently added the last newspaper clipping. It was dated June 18, 1947, and read, "The Enfield High School Class of '47 Graduates Tomorrow Night". The insertion of this last clipping was a far cry from that day four years ago when the first clipping was put into the album. This first one was dated September 13, 1943, and read, "School Opens Tomorrow." It really did open for us and that big, strange building called the Enfield High School, which we had previously gaped at, now became a part of us. Although bewildered about it, we were at last in high school, that noble institution erected not only for the purpose of educating us, but also for sparing our parents the misery of having us home all day. We were welcomed with open arms by the faculty and "down-the-nose" smirks by the upperclassmen. However, it wasn't very long before the class of '47 started "buzzing".

At the Senior-Freshman Reception, which did a great deal toward "breaking the ice", the seniors heard some of the talent hidden in our illustrious class in the person of John Brigada, who made his debut at the reception with an unforgettable rendition of the "Ave Maria".

There are many clippings in my album which are dated 1943 and '44, since the class of '47, even as freshmen, took an active part in all school activities. One clipping reads: "Freshman Class Officers Elected." We were indeed proud of and well-represented by our officers who were: President, Joe Cimino; Vice-President, Francis Robinson; Secretary, Micheline Scavotto; and Treasurer, Ernest Lagel.

Another clipping is headlined: "School Play Entitled 'What A Life' is Howling Success." We were, of course, interested only in the four members of our class who took part in the play. These four budding dramatists were Pat White, Robert Harrison, Audrey Trlida, and Donald Stewart.

The next clipping in the album says: "Enfield Represented at State Latin Contest." Again, unprejudiced as we were, we were merely interested in the freshman representatives, who were Shirley Raissi and Joyce Dineen.

The world of sport provided the material for many more clippings about our class of '47.

Looking through the album brings back memories, one of the happiest of which was the day we became sophomores. Sophistication was the keyword, now that we were able to attend morning classes and varsity athletics.

The first newspaper clipping in this 1944-1945 section of the album concerned the election of class officers. Joe Cimino was again elected President, with Benny Alaimo, Vice-President; Frances Klebosky, Secretary; and Ernest Scavotto, Treasurer.

Next appears the headline; "Hi-Y Variety Revue Minstrel is Big Hit." The class of '47 not only contributed endmen Lois Tierney and Joyce Dineen, but also skit stars and many chorus members.

In January of '45 were introduced two sophomore debating scholars, Frances Klebosky and Helen Barszcz, who appeared on the Friday morning radio debating sessions.

Clippings advertising the school play, "Junior Miss", in which several sophomores took bit parts, were next in the album, and then came some on the school operetta, "Rose of the Danube". Leading parts in this were taken by Pat White, Ralph Fiore, George Mumblo, Corinne Dunne, and Jean Field, all members of the class of '47.

From out of our midst emerged a fiery statesman, Billy Stimson, who was a third selectman in the Model Congress held in May.

The first two years had passed quickly! Now we were juniors. Now we could talk back to the seniors. This year was a busy one for the class of '47.

As I look through my scrapbook, I see that the first clipping under the 1945-1946 term says: "Joe Cimino Again Elected President of Class." This year Joe's fellow officers were Vice-President, Joyce Dineen; Secretary, Jenny Porcello; and Joint Treasurers, Helen Barszcz and Peter Bridge.

The Hi-Y Minstrel again started the year off with a bang. Our class supplied the show with four endmen, Lois Tierney, Ralph Fiore, Peter Bridge, and Joyce Dineen.

Another clipping in the book read, "Principal Hassett Appointed Superintendent of Schools at Woburn." We were all sorry to lose Mr. Hassett, who was replaced by Mr. Tatoian.

Five illustrious classmembers took part in the annual school play entitled "Spring Green." They were Marie O'Brien, Marilyn Creelman, Ralph Fiore, Shirley Raissi, and Joyce Dineen.

The Junior Prom, held in May, added much to the social life at Enfield. The gracious hostess was Patricia White and the host, George Mumblo.

Then came the Farewell Prom, with Betty Gorman as our charming hostess, and Benny Alaimo as host.

Finally we reached the fourth rung of our ladder. We were at last the Seniors in Enfield High School. Shall we ever forget this busy and wonderful year!

The new one-session was established in September, which meant that we seniors would not only have to tame the sophomores and juniors, but also the freshmen.

As usual, the first business of the year was the election of class officers. The headline read, "Joe (Roosevelt) Cimino Elected President for Fourth Term". We were all very proud of Joe's popularity which gained him this honor for four years. Vice-President was Mike Sperrazza, Secretary, Jenny Porcello, and Treasurer, Pat White.

The class of '47 felt very fortunate that we had not graduated before Miss Crombie returned to the faculty after her two and one-half year enlistment in the W. A. V. E. S.

The next clipping concerned the school play "George Washington Slept Here." Ten seniors took part in this production. They were Marie O'Brien, Billy Stimson, Marilyn Creelman, Peter Bridge, John Allen, Shirley Raissi, Francis Robinson, Joe Cimino, Ralph Fiore, and Audrey Trlida.

We all remember the senior "Starlight Prom", which was a great success and which brought forth Francis Robinson as host and Jenny Porcello as hostess.

Fifteen seniors participated in the local American Legion Oratorical Contest and the three winners were Joyce Dineen, Shirley Raissi, and Ralph Fiore. Joyce continued on to win the Area Contest in Windsor Locks, and place third in the County Contest in Hartford.

The sensation of this year's Hi-Y Minstrel, "Springtime Revue", was our own Irving (Al Jolson) Arrowsmith, the endman who brought the house down. Our class also contributed ends—Lois Tierney, Ralph Fiore, Peter Bridge, and Joyce Dineen. Soloists Shirley Raissi, Mary Marocchini, John Brigada, and Irene Podosek, and many members of the chorus.

No history could be complete without due credit to the athletes

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1947

(By James Pumiglia, Kenneth Provencher, Helen Tuomala, Frances Klebosky, Marilyn O'Neil, John Brigada)

Hello! I'm glad you all could come this evening! It's been a long time since I've seen any of you. I must have lost track of most of the class, though I've kept a scrapbook of those that have become famous right here in town.

Here on the first page, I keep the picture of the big four of the entertainment world:

Statia Guzowski, Jean Gabriel, Mary Katsis, and Gloria Carroll. They own that big night club across town—I'm sure you must have seen it on your way over. It's called the "4 Snorts".

By the way, guess who's appearing there now? Jean Fields, the nationally-known roller skating champion, and Helen Kudla, who is star of the "Amazon Basketball Team."

I saw Edward Kotowski, owner of the town's largest print shop the other day, and he told me he's printing the tickets and programs for the affair at the club. By the looks of things a large crowd is expected!

Phyllis Oliver, insurance salesman for the Travelers Insurance Co. told me that Charles Halbwachs, who owns a taxi-cab company, took out some insurance, as he has been doing a tremendous amount of business lately. Why, just the other day, he drove Andrew Keir,—here's his picture,—all around town on a tour. Andy's playing with the Yankees now, and last I heard he was batting 600!

On this page, I've a picture and article about Mary Gorman, famous surgeon, and Micheline Scavotto, dental hygienist. They both have their offices in Stanley Sieminoko's skyscraper on Elm Street.

Also, Francis Robinson, the great criminal lawyer, has one of his offices there and so have Christine Campbell, Mary Fitzgerald, and Mary Marocchini, who operate the Public Stenography Office. I think I have an article about an award they got!

Well, James, maybe you have some information about our former classmates that would help me.

of the class. Outstanding in football were Joe Cimino, Anthony Zvriblis, and Deminick Mangini; in basketball were Mike Sperrazza, Ray Pohorylo, Edmund Krajewski; and in baseball were Andy Kier, Francis Robinson, and Dominick Mangini.

My scrapbook is brimming with clippings about our class which someday will provide interesting reading. In the minds of every one of the graduates of this class is a similar scrapbook, which will in the future refresh our minds and hearts with memories of the "Best Years of Our Lives."

To find out what had become of some of our classmates, we decided to take a trip in our newly-purchased super-chief airplane. As we left the ground at 600 miles an hour, we had little idea of all that we would encounter.

After flying for quite some time, we cut our motor and glided over the spacious hills and country land that was part of the Thompson farm. As we glided over one of the many barns, we noticed someone running and shaking his fist at the plane, carrying an empty milk pail which had obviously been spilled by an over-excited cow. With such a good opportunity to take an aerial shot of Theodore Thompson, we called on our photographer, Rita Starr, and her able assistant, Marilyn Creelman, to do the job.

After making a dramatic escape from the fury of the cow, we flew a straight course until we finally came to a business district in the surrounding vicinity. Gliding our plane in to get a clearer view, the first sight to command our attention was a huge building, which, we finally concluded, was the ultra-modern, specialty meat-market, owned and operated by none other than Benjamin Alaimo. Snuggled next to this establishment was another, which was headed by a brightly decorative sign, advertising John Allen's exclusive business: "For Customers Only."

We flew on, nearly missing the town's theatre, which was featuring—one week only—Johnny Brig formerly J. Brigada—the biggest singing sensation since the decade of Frank Swoonatra, and also a display of the latest and most stunning gowns by the renowned designer, Frances Ambrosini.

As we continued on our journey, a newspaper was swept into our hands and we immediately examined its headline which informed us in big blazing letters: "SCIENTIST A. Wolodko DISCOVERS CAUSE OF COMMON COLD," and below in smaller type: Secretary Lois Tierney, Plays Vital Part in Discovery." We were certainly glad to hear what the scientist in our class had achieved. Upon examining the 1957 Gazette even further, we learned that Joyce Dineen had given a strong political speech in favor of sending atomic machinery to the new settlement which is springing up in the South Pole. Her speech was written for her by the famous writer, Audrey Trlida.

We became so absorbed in our reading that our plane gave a severe jolt before we realized that we were at least two thousand miles off our course in Texas. We dived down to scan the town we were now above. Our eyes bulged as we read the sign on the most stately of all buildings. It read: "George Mumblo—Mortician" (All cases accepted—dead or otherwise.) As we went down for a closer view, we noticed Patricia White, busily arranging flowers in the front room.

A little further down the street was a large real-estate business which was thriving under the supervision of June Cowles and her capable assistant, Florence Bush. Within a stone's throw of this building was a newly organized youth center for the girls of the city and we learned that it had been founded by Mary Parakilas, who had so generously given her time to the up-keep of our own little youth center during our high school days.

SENIOR HONOR STUDENTS

With one glance, we realized that our fuel indicator showed we were running low on atoms, so with all the information we had gathered about our former classmates, we headed straight for the nearest airfield where I met one of my former classmates, Johnny Brigada. Let's hear what you know about our old school-mates.

While I was waiting for my plane to takeoff, I met, to my surprise, Peter Bridge, who was a drummer for the Flat Footer's Band. He told me of an unfortunate accident he had had; he nearly drummed himself to death and Leon Falkowski, anxious for business for his funeral home in Scitico, rushed to the scene. He left me this newspaper, in which I found a great deal about our former class-mates.

In the classified section, I found some advertisements from Dominick Cardaropoli's used car service under the management of Dominick Lepore. The ad read, "You wreck them; we buy them."

Turning to my favorite page which is the sports section, I noticed a picture of the head-backfield coach, Joe Cimino, of the Boston Yanks, giving his final instructions to his two backfield stars, Michael Sperrazza, and Edward Krajewski, before the Boston Yank—Green Packer's Game.

Continuing to read the Sports Page, I noticed in bold print that Raymond Pohorylo, once great star center for Holy Cross, will referee the Enfield College Panther's Game.

Skipping lightly through the funnies, I came to some interesting news items on Page 2. James Pumiglia, famous artist won first prize with his painting—"The Banana Peel" in the Kenneth Provencher painting contest.

In the Thompsonville section, I noticed an item which said that Dominick Mangini, well-known plumber, became the father of a ten-pound bouncing baby, announced by Lena Puma, head nurse of the Springfield Hospital.

Right on the front page, there was a picture of 25 girls competing for the National Typing Championship. I was surprised to see three of these girls were former school-mates of mine. They were Theresa Cicoria, Ann Frangiamore, Elvira Albano.

Well, Marilyn and Helen, that's all I can tell you from gazing over the paper. Maybe your Who's Who Column could help us out further.

In assembling the material for the 1957 Who's Who, we came across some information that might interest you regarding the members of our class that have not already been mentioned.

NEW YORK.

Ralph Fiore, the famous radio announcer for the Swishy Dishy Dust Pan Co., has gone to Hollywood to make a movie called "Forever Dusting." He is being accompanied by his capable assistant, gay Clare Warzyski.

HAZARDVILLE.

William Stimson, newly elected Mayor of Hazardville, has fulfilled his promises to put carpets on the sidewalks and soda fountains on every corner.

CHICAGO.

Clara Sperry, noted psychologist, has opened a new office in the Oh My Oh Building owned by Helen Barszcz, the famous advertising executive of the Duzzy Dozen Soap Bar Company.

MIAMI.

Alice Krusinski, receptionist for the Hope You Live Long Insurance Company, is vacationing in Florida. Jane Provencher is private secretary to Mr. Live Long, president of the company.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Evelyn Rybeck, buyer for the Sparkler Jewelry Manufacturers, has gone to India to purchase some new gems.

ST. LOUIS.

Agatha Arnone and Irene Podosek have opened the Du Marry Marriage Bureau.

HOLLYWOOD.

Why The Bees Buzz, the novel written by Frances Klebosky is being published by the We Publish Anything Publishing Company. This company is owned by Shirley Raissi.

DALLAS.

Corrine Dunne and Sylvia Duggan are modeling clothes for the Catch Can Department Store which is managed by Marie O'Brien. Marilyn O'Neill is the head bookkeeper.

HARTFORD.

Ruth Maylott, noted dress designer, has just returned from Hollywood, where she signed a contract with the Cornee Cowboy Studio. She is to design all the costumes to be used in their next production, "Short In The Saddle."

HAZARDVILLE.

We want to congratulate Ralph Birkenshaw on the opening of his new "You Want It, We got It" Department Store. His head sales clerk is none other than Sally Higginbotham, former manager of Higginbotham's Haberdashery.

THOMPSONVILLE.

Jerry Sullivan has just opened his new Whirl-Away Twirl-Away But Don't Fall Down Roller Skating Rink. Sully has opened an office in the new Hexagon Building on Pearl Street. Helen Toumala is his receptionist and his private secretary is Doris Nosal. That famous artist, Jackie Wilson, has contracted to paint his portrait.

HACKENSACK.

Bernice Maylott, well-known photographer for the Hackensack Chronicle, was the first to arrive for the opening of the Teen-Age Dress Shoppe, owned and operated by Barbara Reinhardt. Barbara was recently chosen as one of the ten best-dressed women in the country.

HOLLYWOOD.

Diane Thompson is the new chief hair stylist for the new movie studio in Hollywood. Some of Diane's creations are dreams.

HARTFORD.

Jenny Porcello has recently been appointed personnel manager of the Sweep-Clean Broom Company. She is assisted by two capable receptionists, Anna D'Addabbo and Effie Pappas.

HARTFORD.

Alice Malides has certainly gone places in the last few years. From a minor position as office clerk, Alice has advanced to the position of private secretary to the Governor.

NEW YORK.

That new poem that everyone is raving about was written by Margaret Slanetz. Yes, Margaret wrote "The Autumn Leaves Fell With A Resounding Crash." She said her inspiration came from watching the leaves fall from the trees. Maybe she meant horsechestnuts.

Speaking of authors, maybe Novelist Kenny Provencher can give us some information on a few of the members of our class from whom we have not heard.

Trying to get material for a novel which will be called "Enfield's Children Today," I decided to take a trip around the country to see what had become of some of my former classmates.

My first stop was the Topsy Topy circus. Upon entering the Big Top, I noticed a large crowd gathered together. As I moved closer I found that their attention was focused on Anthony Zvirblis (Enfield's own superman) who was in the act of lifting a 600 lb. weight over his head with one hand. While watching this spectacular sight with amazement, I bumped into Maurice Griffin, that famous game hunter, who informed me that he spends six months of each year in the African Jungles capturing wild animals for this, the greatest show on earth. While conversing with Maurice, my thoughts were interrupted by a loud crash. This crash, I was informed by Maurice, came from the crash grounds where Chick Graham, Enfield's super-duper daredevil, had just completed his terrifying leap of death.

After I had finished my very interesting tour of the Big Top, I once again climbed into the super rocket ship, which incidentally, belongs to the Atomic Rocket Co., owned and operated by Francis Mistretta.

While flying over one of the higher peaks, I noticed a huge observatory which is owned by Francis Barilla, that noted scien-

CLASS PRESENTATIONS

(By Patricia White, William Stimson, Jennie Porcello, Michael Sperrazza, Marie O'Brien, John Allen, Shirley Raissi)

Benjamin AlaimoTelescope	Agatha ArnoneWhistle
For Benny we have a telescope To make his gun shoot true; He can also keep a closer watch On certain neighbors too.	As a student you have certainly excelled, And your own in all studies have held. But, gosh, you're oh so quiet. Take this whistle and start a riot.
Elvira AlbanoTape	Irving ArrowsmithRecord
Elvira likes to talk a lot From early until late, As a remedy— We recommend adhesive tape.	Irving has a wonderful voice! Sounds just like Al Jolson. Here's a record of our choice To add to the commotion.
John AllenTie	Francis BarrilaGun
For John we have this flashy tie To hang below his face. It'll surely make the girls all sigh, And put up quite a chase.	Francis likes to fish and hunt, And roam the woods all day; With him we leave this little gun To help him catch his prey.
Frances AmbrosiniThimble	Helen BarszczMedal
Franny sews most all her clothes With fingers which are nimble. Her dressees all have pretty bows, With her we leave this thimble.	Helen deserves this medal, Because a good student she is. For it we hope she'll settle Without putting us through a quiz.
Ethelbert ArnoldCurler	Ralph BirkenshawPin Up Girl
We know that curls every day Are Betty's ambition; So this curler is sure To bring her recognition.	Birkey likes the women, But work to him is a bore.

tist and physicist who, as I had read previously, was working on the further development of atomic energy. Deciding to pay Frank a call, I was greeted at the door by Frank's charming secretary, Thelma Puleri, who informed me that Frank was in the middle of a great discovery and could not be interrupted just then. While waiting patiently, I turned on my portable radio and was just in time to hear my favorite program "The Rythm Hour" which starred Irving Arrowsmith, Enfield's own Al Jolson, and featured Ernie Scavotto and his jazz band. The guests on the program were John LeBel with his magic violin and Al McBride, famed Broadway dancer. The program was sponsored by the Donald Mullen & Son Dairy.

After I had finished my interesting discussion with Frank, I journeyed down to the village and had my suit cleaned and pressed by the Robert Harrison Cleaning Establishment where I found that Betty Arnold is employed as head clerk.

Feeling much fresher and neater I once again boarded the rocket and headed for home, having acquired much information for my new book.

This pin up girl may cheer him
While striving in the store.

Peter Bridge.....Seeds

A farmer's part you act so well,
Perhaps it's your life's station;
These seeds we give with luck to you
To help raise a healthy nation.

John Brigada.....Nelson Eddy Record

John can sing in any range,
For a song he is always ready.
But if his voice should suddenly change;
He can play this record by Nelson
Eddy.

Florence Bush.....Firecracker

Florence is a quiet girl,
And rather bashful too.
We are giving her this firecracker,
To make a crash or two.

Christine Campbell.....Bell

Christine is a quiet girl,
As every one can tell.
But as her friends, I know you'll say,
She'll surely ring this bell.

Dominick Cardaropoli.....Car

To Dom we give this little car,
Which we know he will enjoy.
Think of the hearts that he will win
When he asks the girls to take a spin.

Gloria Caroll.....Glasses

For Gloria we have these glasses
To cover eyes of blue;
They might serve as passes
To something entirely new.

Carmel Cicoria.....Writing Paper

Writing paper's really dandy,
As Carmel surely knows.
It always comes in mighty handy,
In writing her letters to Joe.

Marilyn Creelman.....Starry Sky

Marilyn is so sweet,
She measures but five feet;
To her we leave this starry sky,
To match the twinkle in her eye.

Theresa Cicoria.....Vitamin Pills

Theresa would like very much to grow,
These pills should do the trick.
One a day with a well-balanced meal,
And soon her height will show.

Joseph Cimino.....Medal, Bale of Hay

Joe Cimino, the dairyman,
Busy at work and play;
For his achievements in school—
a medal,
For his cows—a bale of hay.

June Cowles.....Vitamin Pills

June is very active
And quick on the trigger.
These vitamin pills are given
To restore her vim and vigor.

Anna D'Addobbo.....Whistle

Anna is very quiet,
She never makes a sound.
Here's a little whistle
To let us know when she's around.

Joyce Dineen.....Medal

Like "Johnny on the Spot,"
Joyce has helped a lot.
We give to her this medal
For the cheer and joy she's peddled.

Sylvia Duggan...Errol Flynn Pin Up

Sylvia is popular with the boys,
Many a heart she'll win.
Through the day to add to her joys—
A pin up of Errol Flynn.

Corrine Dunne.....Percolator

Corrine may someday settle down,
May even become a mater.
This will certainly lighten her work,
A brand new percolator.

Leon Falkowski.....Joke Book

Leon is so very witty,
He's forever cracking a ditty.
For him we have this brand new joke book,
We hope that through it he soon will look.

Jean Fields.....Date Book

Jean goes skating for one reason:
To pick her boyfriends by the season.
We give this little book to you,
To help remember who is who.

Ralph Fiore.....Dance Shoes

We know you like to dance a lot.
You're a wizard on the floor!
Here's a pair of dancing shoes,
So you can dance away your blues.

Mary Gorman.....Book of Knowledge

Bright? Brainy? Intelligent? Very!
These all describe our Mary.
Please accept this book of knowledge
To help you through college.

- Charles Graham.....Car
To Chick we give this little car
To add to his collection.
We admit he'll not get very far,
But still it's a good selection.
- Mary Fitzgerald.....Clothes Brush
Since you're always neat and prim,
This brush will help to keep you trim.
- Ann Framiamore.....Ipana Tooth Paste
This Ipana is for your pretty smile,
We hope you will keep it for a long, long, while.
- Jean Gabriel.....Bubble Gum
Jean is quiet, in a noisy sort of way,
She's always out for fun;
Constantly chewing from day to day,
On a wad of Bubble gum.
- Maurice Griffin.....Griffin Shoe Polish
Maurice Griffin, is it true,
That this polish was named for you?
- Stasia Guzowski.....Gum
Stasia chews her time away,
And does it the livelong day.
In Room 26, though, it is taboo
Mr. Nigro knows where it goes.
Do you?
- Charles Halbwachs.....Comic Book
Charles is always reading
Of Indians, doctors, and crooks.
He gets his information
By reading comic books.
- Robert Harrison.....Toy Car
Driving is his chief interest
In this he is a star,
And now we will present him
With a brand new motor car.
- Sally Higginbotham.....Sales Slip
Sally works in a store,
She has customers galore.
This sales slip goes to Sally
To make her figures tally.
- Mary Katsis.....Dance Program
This dance program to Mary goes,
Each new dancing step she knows.
We hope it isn't too small
For she is very popular at a ball.
- Andrew Kier.....Baseball
Andy is a ballplayer;
Ever ready, too.
Always out to have fun
Never feeling blue.
- Frances Klebosky.....Book of Poetry
She's pretty, she's fair
And she likes to write.
This book of poetry
Will keep her home at night.
- Edward Kotowski.....Medal
His work on the school paper
We will not forget.
For this and other deeds
A medal he will get.
- Edward Krajewski.....Detention Slip
We all know he's innocent,
We all know he likes fun;
But when it comes to getting detentions,
Edward is the one.
- Alice Krusinski.....Fingernail Polish
Her practice of painting nails
We hope she won't abolish.
To keep her ever going
Here's another bottle of polish.
- Helen Kudla.....Box of Wheaties
Helen, you are full of pep,
Is it "Wheaties" that keeps you hep?
- John LeBel.....Flashy Tie
We've heard that John loves a flashy tie,
This one will make him heave a sigh.
- Dominick Lepore.....Muzzle
Dom is always gabbing,
Or bending someone's ear,
To him we give a muzzle,
His gabbing we'll now not hear.
- Alice Malides.....Fingernail File
Your fingernails are neat, we know.
Please take this file and keep them so.
- Dominick Mangini.....Art Gum
We know you draw well
But just in case,
Here's some art gum
If you erase.
- Mary Marocchini.....Toy Harmonica
If ever your voice is gone,
And you just cannot sing;
Play this harmonica,
It will fix everything.
- Bernice Maylott.....Crayons
Bernice likes to draw, that's sure,
And we want to be an aid.
So we give her a set of crayons
To help her make the grade.

- Ruth Maylott.....Painting Set
Color painting is her hobby
Which may grow into a business, yet.
And we will start her off
By giving her a painting set.
- Alexander McBride.....Joke Book
Where there are crowds, you will find
Al right in the middle.
Bringing joy to the mind
By telling another riddle.
- Francis Mistretta.....Airplane
He's in the C. A. P. we know,
And does he like to fly!
So when we give him this airplane,
We'll know he's in the sky.
- Donald Mullen.....Freckle Cream
We wonder how Don would look
Without his many freckles,
This jar of freckle cream
Will help remove the speckles.
- George Mumblo.....Ear Plugs
A good fifer is this lad,
When we hear him everyone
shrugs.
We know he really isn't that bad, but—
For his sake, we give him these ear plugs.
- Doris Nosal.....Parker's Quink Ink
Since you are always out of ink,
How about a bottle of Parker's
Quink?
- Marie O'Brien.....An Oscar
For the excellent acting you have done,
Please accept this Oscar you have won.
- Mary Parakilas.....Bottle of Glue
We're always looking for her,
But she's not to be found.
Here's a bottle of glue
So that she'll stick around.
- Raymond Pohorylo.....Fishing Rod
He's shy and quiet,
But lots of fun.
He's the best fisherman
Under the sun.
- Kenneth Provencher.....Paint Brush
He's tall and handsome
And can he blush!
But you'll always find him,
With his dad's paint brush.
- Thelma Puleri.....Megaphone
Thelma likes dancing
And is a good reader.
Her chief interest, though,
Is being a good cheerleader.
- Marilyn O'Neil.....Friendship Ring
Marilyn is a friendly lass,
Who always wears a smile;
This friendship ring is from her class
To keep her friendly all the while.
- Phyllis Oliver.....Finger-nail Polish
Phyllis always has red nails,
And eyes of flashing blue;
A gift of finger-nail polish,
And the best of luck goes, too.
- Irene Padosek.....Noisemaker
Irene is such a quiet girl,
But nice as she can be;
A noisemaker is just what she needs,
To make her heard in company.
- Efchia Pappas.....Sewing Kit
Effie likes to sew,
And does it well, we know;
This sewing kit of brown,
Will never let her down.
- Genevieve Porcello.....Date Book
Jenny is a busy girl,
With dates and chores a many,
A date book is just what she needs,
To keep her appointments with Benny.
- June Provencher.....Yeast Cake
June never seems to grow,
She is so very small;
A yeast cake we all know,
Will help her to grow tall.
- Lena Puma.....Horn
Lena is a quiet girl,
She never makes a sound;
Here's a horn for her to blow,
So we'll know when she's around.
- James Pumiglia, Jr.....Color Crayons
Jimmy will go far
As an artist some fine day,
These color crayons we hope
Will help send him on his way.
- Shirley Raissi.....Gavel
Shirley is a fine speaker,
Her fame runs far and wide;
If I ever get into a debate
I hope she'll be on my side.

- Barbara Reinhardt.....Parachute
Barbara rides in Bobby's car,
She rides both near and far,
He drives so fast, if they should crash
This parachute she will need.
- Francis Robinson.....Tire
Francis has an auto,
At least he calls it that;
This tire will help him out,
In case he gets a flat.
- Evelyn Rybeck.....Bottle of Smiles
Evelyn is a happy girl,
To her a smile's a sport,
A bottle of smiles is just what she
needs,
So she will never run short.
- Ernest Scavotto.....Saxophone
The way Ernie plays the sax,
He must have practiced long;
In case he breaks the one he has,
He can still finish the song.
- Micheline Scavotto.....Vitamin Pills
Mickey is our cheerleader,
And she is plenty hep;
These vitamin pills should do the job,
And keep her full of pep.
- Stanley Sieminoko.....Crank
Stanley works in a garage,
And drives his own car too, no doubt,
So if his car should ever stop,
This crank will help him out.
- Margaret Slanetz.....Adhesive Tape
Margaret it seems
Likes to talk a great deal;
This tape will keep
Her quiet, we feel.
- Michael Sperrazza.....Letter "E"
Mike is one of the best players of basketball in Enfield high today;
You don't know what you've missed,
if you've never seen him play.
- Clara Sperry.....Megaphone
Clara's voice is not too strong,
She doesn't talk above a whisper;
So that we may hear what she has to say,
This megaphone will assist her.
- Rita Starr.....Camera
Rita we know will always excel,
In taking pictures that are swell;
This camera will help some day,
To send her merrily on her way.
- William Stimson.....Feather Pillow
Bill has a horse, I understand
I think he calls it Brandy;
To him I'll give this feather pillow,
Some time it might prove handy.
- Jeremiah Sullivan.....Mousetrap
Jerry goes to Riverside each night,
To skate and wolf the girls,
With this mousetrap we hope he might
Catch one with pretty curls.
- Lois Tierney.....Medal
Lois, you always do your job,
And do it well we know;
May this medal and our thanks,
Be with you as you go.
- Diane Thompson.....Ribbon
We see you wearing ribbons each day,
As you are going on your way,
Diane, this ribbon will be fine,
To make your blue eyes shine.
- Theodore Thompson.....Bell
Teddy is a quiet boy,
He never makes a sound;
So here's a bell for him,
To let us know when he's around.
- Audrey Trlida.....Ipana Toothpaste
Audrey has a pretty smile,
And charming are her ways;
Use this Ipana every day,
Because a pretty smile pays.
- Helen Tuomala.....Report Card
In school she is quite bright,
Because she studies with all her
might,
Although in English she is at her best;
She does all right in all the rest.
- Paul Vella.....Plaster
Paul, we know you like to dance,
And to keep yourself so neat.
But dancing causes corns,
So here's some plaster for your feet.
- Clare Warzyski.....Tie
To Clare we give this flashy tie,
So that when girls meet him they will sigh;
It should also help to brighten up
his face,
So when he goes by, the girls will chase.

CLASS SONG OF 1947

We have come to the days of parting.
These four years have quickly passed.
With sorrow we're departing
But our memories we'll hold fast.

Our High School days we'll cherish
Each mem'ry we will share,
Never to forget dear Enfield
And the years that we spent there.

The future lies bright before us
With the best that we were given,
We'll make you proud, "Old Enfield,"
Signed: "The Class of '47."

ADVICE TO UNDERGRADUATES

(By Ralph Fiore)

Ladies, Gentlemen, Supposedly Educated Underclassmen and Distinguished Fellow Classmen:

We are gathered here tonight to witness the end of four memorable, but difficult years. However, it is customary to insert into the program a bit of sagacious advice from the retiring Seniors to the aspiring underclassmen. Therefore it is my undescribable pleasure to impart to you Juniors, Sophmores, and Freshmen, a few pearls of wisdom to remain with you long after our zealous contributions have faded.

This eloquent advice is accompanied by a fervent prayer from our noble hearts that these little ignoramuses will eagerly grasp our wise words and eagerly strive to reform and follow the path of us who have gone before.

Listen carefully, children, and learn. Now Freshmen, since you are the newest and youngest addition to our small family, we well start with you. We know you are frightened in the strange new world in which you find yourselves, but must you jump as jack-rabbits whenever a kind Senior speaks to you? And while in our presence, please try to stop imitating the inhabitants of San Francisco during the earthquake. No need to shake and quake; no one is going to hurt you. And, oh, yes, we realize that in the nursery school, which you attended previous to joining us, you were taught how to tell time; but must you keep reminding us by continually gazing at the clocks? You are apt to develop stiff necks. Besides, we studious Seniors, so absorbed in our lessons, dislike intensely the reminder that 1:45 o'clock is approaching, at which time we must reluctantly close our books and force ourselves homeward. But where there is life, there is hope—which explains why we have given up hope for the Sophomores.

Oh, you Sophomores! You have been here for two years and still your kindergarten traits are showing. Can't you learn to keep your gum in your mouth while taking a drink? We know it can't be the Freshmen who drop gum in the drinking fountain, for they are still busy with their lollypops and jaw breakers. As for the Juniors, they are too far advanced to even think of such nonsense! In connection with your behavior in the cafeteria, let's start from scratch. I realize by the time fifth period rolls around you are more than hungry, but, once you get your food, must you act as monkeys do at feeding time? The highlight of the lunch period takes place when some innocent Freshman must pay the consequence for your banana skins and milk bottle caps which accidentally on purpose fall on to the floor; but then who encourages these ardent habits? Yes, none other than the Juniors.

MEMBERS OF SCHOOL ATHLETIC TEAMS

E. H. S. CHEER LEADERS

The fabulous Juniors! The little termites who are trying so hard to impersonate us, the Seniors. While trying to achieve your goal in athletics think of our more prominent class athletes, such as Joseph Cimino, Ray Pohorylo, and Mike Sperrazza. Next fall when it's time for the actors and actresses to be cast in the school play, let them say to themselves, "I shall try to be as good as Peter Bridge, Marie O'Brien and Marilyn Creelman," all members of the Class of 1947.

Another of our achievements which we would wish for you to imitate is our oratorical excellence. Keep in mind especially Joyce Dineen, Shirley Raissi and Ralph Fiore, winners of the local American Legion Oratorical Contest.

In closing this bit of sagacious advice, we would care to leave two thoughts in mind; namely—follow our footsteps as closely as possible, and make our school remain an outstanding place of learning.

REPLY FROM UNDERGRADUATES

(By William Egan)

Overconfident, Egotistical Seniors:

We, the Junior Class, regret to inform you that due to circumstances beyond our control, you have underestimated us. Therefore, I feel it is my duty to enlighten your opinion of the future Seniors.

As far as imparting wisdom is concerned, the Junior Class as a whole believes that the present Senior Class has neither the wisdom nor the mental capacity to receive graduation honors. We also believe that the minds of the Seniors are much too immature and that they should receive a course in mental gymnastics in order to carry out the curricular activities of the normal mind.

We, the Junior Class, also sincerely believe that we can fulfill the duties of the present Senior Class and might even venture to state that the Seniors have left their affairs in a very crude state. By the time the present Junior Class graduates, the school will have seen a new golden era.

The Junior Class will carry on more proficiently the duties of the Senior Class.

Concerning lunch period—What a pity that the speed which the Seniors evidence during the lunch period dash should be so woefully absent when these people attempt to perform at a track meet. The Seniors give the impression that if they aren't the first to lunch they will become victims of mal-nutrition.

The scholastic achievements of the school have heretofore been hindered by the low mentality, poor comprehension and retarded development of the present Senior Class. Since we shall no longer be burdened by your presence we can now soar to new heights in academic achievement.

In all seriousness, on behalf of the Underclassmen, I wish to express our sincere gratitude for your fine and capable leadership in school activities. It is only with kind thoughts and fond memories that we bid you farewell and good luck.

CLASS WILL

(By Lois Tierney)

Friends, members of the faculty, and future seniors:

We are gathered here this evening to listen to the last will and testament of the departing class of 1947.

Therefore, we of the class of 1947, being of sound mind and disposition, free from any undue influence, do hereby declare and publish this to be our last will and testament, declaring null and void any and all wills or statements made by us at any time.

Item 1. It is our desire that our Last Services be under the direction of our principal and that at such exercises we be given all the honor and glory which is duly ours, and that for one minute preceding such services those in the building be absolutely silent in our memory.

Item 2. To the Juniors we give the key to Room 26 and the guidance of Mr. Nigro. We also leave you the ability to clean the floors in Room 26 after the lower classmen get through dropping their papers on it.

Item 3. To Mr. McLaren we leave an escalator so that he may be upstairs or downstairs wherever and whenever his assistance is desired.

Item 4. To the children of the Freshman Class we leave four years of good times and all our unfinished homework.

Item 5. To the Class of 1948, we bequeath the dignity and stateliness that is typically symbolized in the Class of 1947.

Item 6. To the Sophomores we leave the ability to be late to class and yet escape the penalty.

Item 7. The following bequests we make in good faith and trust that they be accepted by the heirs in the spirit in which they are transmitted:

1. Jean Fields leaves her faculty to always find a male roller-skating partner to Joan Starr of the Sophomore Class.

2. Joyce Dineen and Lois Tierney leave their talent as end-men to that spark-plug of the Junior Class, Helen Chesla.

3. We leave the great athletic prowess of Ray Pohorylo to be divided between Buster Angelica and Eddie Lynch.

4. Pat White leaves her popularity and attractiveness to Irene O'Donnell, that very popular miss of the Sophomore Class.

5. Clara Sperry leaves her very pretty hair to Claire Provencher of the Sophomore Class.

6. James Pumiglia bequeathes his artistic dexterity to be divided equally between Alan Sheehan and John Mangini.

7. Gloria Carroll leaves her bewitching eyes to Lola DeCaro, that very captivating little lady.

8. We leave the ability to play basketball which is equally divided between Mike Sperrazza and Ray Pohorylo, to Raymond Shelanskas.

9. We leave Peter Bridge's honor of having the longest legs in Enfield to Dick Peterson.

10. Marie O' Brien generously leaves her acting ability to Barbara Merrill.

11. We leave a large supply of late slips to the office to make up for the shortage caused by Francis Robinson.

12. June Cowles leaves her perfect personality to Wanda Korona.

13. Leon Falkowski leaves his jokes, such as they are, to Alan Sheehan.

14. John LeBel leaves his flashy neckties to any Junior with glasses strong enough to stand them.

15. We leave Ralph Fiore's dancing ability to Herby Dobby.

16. We bequeath Thelma Puleri's exceptional ability to flirt to any girl in the Junior Class who feels able to carry on in Thelma's place.

17. Joe Cimino leaves the job of managing the Senior Class to that very capable Junior, Billy Egan.

Presentations

Patricia White.....Joke Book

Pat is very popular,
With girls and fellows too;
With this joke book as a gift to her,
We trust she will never be blue.

Jacquelyn Wilson.....Date Book

Jackie has oh, so many friends!
And so this book of dates

Will help her to keep track of them,
So that she will ne'er be late.

Alphonse Wolodoko.....Worms

The gift I have prepared for you,
Is quite a surprise I expect;
But since you like Biology,
Here's a worm for you to dissect.

Anthony Zvirblis.....Paper Dolls

Zibby is a busy boy,
And always in a muddle;
So we thought these paper dolls,
Would keep him out of trouble.

18. Phyllis Oliver leaves her ability to do her nails in class to any underclassman who can get away with it.

19. Ernie Scavotto leaves his ability to get in just before the last bell, to everyone.

20. Mickey Scavotto leaves her outstanding ability as a Cheerleader to Kitty Persano, that peppy little Junior.

21. June Provencher leaves her cuteness and petite ways to Mary Rowan, that very pretty miss of the Freshman Class.

22. Jean Fields leaves her continuous chatter to Marilyn Evans.

23. Mary Marocchini leaves her lovely voice to Marie Tamaro.

24. Frances Klebosky and Marilyn Creelman leave their very captivating dimples to be divided among all the girls.

25. Joyce Dineen leaves her outstanding oratorical ability to Helen Chesla.

26. Shirley Raissi and Helen Barczyk leave their excellence in study to Joan Cormier and Barbara Merrill.

27. William Stimson leaves his honor of being the only boy honor student in the Senior Class to any Junior who is capable of obtaining such an achievement.

28. Mr. Nigro's first period English Class leaves its ability to make English enjoyable.

29. All the remaining property, which has not been disposed of by this will, we give and bequeath to our principal, Mr. Tatoian for his sole benefit.

We hereby appoint said principal sole executor of this, our last will and testament.

The foregoing instrument was given on this 18th day of June 1947 and in our presence, signed, sealed, published and declared by the said class of 1947, the testators, named therein, as their last will and testament, whereupon we, the undersigned have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

CONGRATULATIONS

Graduation from Dear Old Enfield has arrived after only four short years. Fond memories of events having occurred, and friendships made during those short years at Enfield will forever remain in the hearts and minds of all of you.

Some of you will continue in various fields of education, while others will choose a vocation. To those of you who are prepared to seek a position with opportunity, we invite you to discuss your future plans with our vocational counselor.
